BANNER TEN-REEL BILL AT THE POPULAR PROVES BIG WINNER

Boston Braves Shown In Action
—Pauline's Perils Begom-
ing Highly Exciting

"The Three Musketeers," a romantic melodrama adapted from Alexander Dumas' stirring novel of the same name, is the feature offering at the Popular theater for the current week and tops the largest and best bill ever offered in this city. For almost three hours the patrons of the Popular are treated to a run of films that are exceptional, both in workmanship, artistic ability and clarity of picture. Ten reels in all are shown and, as previously stated, they are exceptional in their merit.

As a curtain raiser the Popular is showing what would be the "feature" in an ordinary motion picture house, this being an up-to-date Pathé Weekly, which shows warlike preparations in Europe, and also shows the Boston Nationals, the world's champions, in action. This baseball picture is a remarkable piece of silent dramatics and it is rather a pity that an entire game is not shown instead of only a most exciting inning. However, Stalings' Braves are in the limelight and prove a most entertaining part of a fine film.

The "Perils of Pauline," in the second installment, prove real perils, the charming heroine of this serial drama narrowly escaping destruction in the wrecking of an aeroplane. The scene of this aeroplane accident is said to have been taken at an aviation meet when one of the premier birdmen lost his life, and to have been adapted to the "Perils" later.

The Anti-Saloon League has secured the Popular theater for next Tuesday, afternoon and night, at which time Jack London's "John Barleycorn" will be shown. As a consequence this large ten-reel bill will only be offered for five nights. There is but one performance each evening on account of the great length of the films, commencing at 7:30 sharp.

STOPS STOMACH PAINS IN TWO MINUTES

The recent discovery by a leading specialist that pure bismuth magenta will almost instantly relieve pain in the stomach resulting from indigestion, dyspepsia or acidity is of the greatest importance to thousands of people suffering from various forms of stomach trouble. As is well known, nine-tenths of all stomach disorders are directly traceable to excessive acidity. A teaspoonful taken in a little water after meals not only neutralizes the acid and stops the pain, but quickly overcomes the cause of the trouble, soothes the inflamed lining of the stomach, and in a short time effects permanent relief. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Chambers Drug Co. and Hollister Co.—Adv.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE TO CONTROL POPULAR THEATER NEXT TUESDAY

The doors of the Popular theater are to be thrown wide open next Tuesday when the Anti-Saloon League, by arrangement with Messrs. Blair and Brodoff, takes full charge and conducts meetings in the interests of public welfare.

Fifteen hundred or more school children are to receive complimentary tickets of admission to the two afternoon matinees and in the evening the doors are to be opened to the public with a small admission of five cents to all parts of the house. There will be two "shows."

Not only will "John Barleycorn" be thrown on the canvas but other pictures, attractive and interesting, clean and instructive, as well as the usual Pathé Weekly.

DANCE AT PUBLIC PARK.
The Royal Hawaiian band will play this evening at the public baths, Kapiolani park, for the usual public dance. All invited.

DUKE COMING HOME.

W. T. Rawlins has received a cable from Duke Kahanamoku, stating that he will return to Honolulu on the Matsushima, due here November 10, in expectation of sailing for Australia shortly, on invitation of the Antipodean swimming authorities. Rawlins had expected to accompany Duke on his trip but the former's election to the territorial legislature makes it impossible for him to do so. He is therefore looking round for a substitute, and either "Duke" Miller or Harvey Chilton will probably be selected to act as traveling companion and trainer to the Hawaiian champion.

HAWAII WELL PLAYED BY OFFICIAL ORGAN OF EXPRESS COMPANY

Hawaii is receiving marked and favorable attention in the Wells-Fargo Messenger, the house organ of the Wells-Fargo Express Company. The October issue features Hawaii, the elaborate color cover being designed to present a tropical effect with the famed Hawaiian canoe in the foreground. The leading article is "The Cross Roads of the Pacific," which gives a general description of the islands, their business and industrial development. The illustrations show the Capitol building, scenes at Waikiki, in the city of Honolulu and through the pineapple fields of Oahu. Under the heading of "A Visitor From Hawaii" is given a reproduction of an advertisement in the old Polynesian which shows the Wells-Fargo was doing business in Honolulu in 1856. An illustration also appears of a small basket that went all the way from Kilauea to New York. The address card had a picture of the volcano and this story on the reverse side: "I was lost at the volcano of Kilauea on the island of Hawaii, and some kind person picked me up and started me on my homeward journey."

T. S. Choy pleaded guilty in Judge Ashford's court today to a charge of assault and battery, preferred against him by Elizabeth Choy. On the recommendation of Deputy City and County Attorney A. M. Brown, who said the prosecuting witness is in the hospital and would never be able to testify, the court granted suspension of sentence for thirteen months. Circuit Judge Whitney today signed an order authorizing the distribution of the estate of the late John L. Pivormann by the Hawaiian Trust Company, administrator, to Emma Wortmann, sole known heir. The total amount he received by her is approximately $10,000.

'MISTRESS MARY' MAKES FINAL BOW; PRODUCTION A REAL SUCCESS

Artistically and Financially
Opera Has Made Good
In Honolulu

"Mistress Mary" and her merry company of shepherds and shepherdesses, frogs, lambs, village magistrates, fairies and sprites made their last bow to the Honolulu public last night with the closing of the third local performance of the pretty pastoral operetta given for the Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Association.

The third performance is regarded by many critics as the best of all in point of precision, compactness and speed. It was again a case of every member of the cast and the orchestra, the director and the folks lending a helping hand back on the stage—all working together energetically and effectively.

The two performances yesterday—matinee and evening—again attracted capacity crowds. Last night many were unable to get seats and not a few stood in the rear of the house throughout the performance. Several enjoyable features were given yesterday afternoon and last night between the acts. In the afternoon Mr. L. Young Corretthers, who takes the part of the bold black sheep villain in the pastoral play, gave a harlequin dance. Naked and in a gay harlequin costume of yellow with black diamonds, he danced splendidly. This feature was such a success that many requests were sent to Miss Margaret Martin and Mr. Corretthers that it be repeated, and he gave it again last evening with equal effect.

Between the second and the third acts last night Mrs. F. P. Reynolds, in her dainty shepherdess costume and with a beribboned shepherd's crook, sang two very appropriate songs, both 18th century shepherdess compositions, "Maidens, Remember," and "Oh, Fickle Shepherdess."

The airy lift of the songs fitted splendidly into the "tone" of the entire performance and Mrs. Reynolds was called upon for an encore, which was equally well given.

Mr. John Gifford's violin solo between the first and second acts was also greeted with much deserved applause. Miss Margaret Martin, composer and producer of the operetta, was given an ovation at both afternoon and evening performances and the hearty applause and friendly cheers that rang out over the house evidently pleased her deeply. At the close of the evening event the curtains went down on the happy and rollicking company in the last chorus and then went up again while the company gave three real cheers for Miss Martin. The audience, hurrying for autos and cars, stopped long enough to give a cheer for the company itself and then the curtain dropped on what a great many people declare to be the best amateur production Honolulu has ever seen.

Miss Martin leaves for the mainland tomorrow. The production was put on in just a month.

Figures are not yet available as to the financial results of the four performances—the first at Schofield and the others here—but it was stated this morning that the Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Association had hoped to clear $1500 net, and that, while this figure might not be reached, the proceeds will fall not far below it.

WAIKIKI INN DANCE TONIGHT

The usual Thursday evening dance will be held at Waikiki Inn this evening.

You are cordially invited to attend and enjoy an exceptionally pleasant evening.—Adv.
